The above Census list is incomplete. I estimate there are at least 225 more Indians that I have not been able to get into touch with to get their names etc. This would make the total 1202 all told.

The above Census is correct and accurate as far as it goes.

Annual Report 1913.

Section 8 - Population.

The Annual Census accompanying this report will show about 800 Indians under this jurisdiction, representing ten reservations in San Diego County. This territory is too large for a Superintendent to handle with limited traveling facilities, as the only way to get effective and permanent results is by personal supervision, and in view of the detail of the work among the Indians, and the tremendous amount of data and reports and correspondence required by the Office if one has sufficient time for thought and attention to do good constructive work, the hours of a working day are not sufficient to keep the pace.

During the fiscal year just closed I have counseled with 1200 Indians who have come to my office for information, advice or complaint, and have personally visited the homes and farming lands of 75 Indians. I have made many trips to homes of old and indigent Indians to secure thumbmarks and to investigate actual conditions. Have visited all of my reservations, except San Pasqual, a number of times and have received weekly mail reports from those reservations where there is located a Police Private or Officer. Have done detective duty at seven fiestas with the hope of preventing the sale of liquor or catching the offender; and have attended the Federal Court five times.

It has been a matter of regret that we have had so few Inspectors or Officials visit this Agency, as such visits where they are of sufficient duration, are a material help in getting a better understanding of our conditions and needs and difficulties before the Office. No one Inspector has visited us more than once with the exception of Supervisor Hall, who visited us a number of times and was a source of inspiration and help to us.

The visit of Inspector Dorr to this Agency during August 1912 was a source of much satisfaction to the Superintendent as well as productive of some good to the Indians. Some of these Indians dislike Government regulations and are very averse to discipline or control of any kind; this applies especially to the Los Coyotes tribes, and I was glad of an opportunity for the personal knowledge of an Inspector, and for the Indians to present their grievances to a superior officer. Mr. Dorr spent ten days at this Agency and had an opportunity to acquire some definite knowledge of the Los Coyotes, Mesa Grande and Volcan reservations and Indians. At that time I urgently desired him to visit with me the Capitan Grande, Conejos, Inaja and Sycuan reservations, but owing to limited time he could not accompany me.
